Fun Facts About Le Sueur

History

Le Sueur, named in honor of Pierre Charles Le Sueur, a Frenchman who explored the Minnesota River Valley around 1700, started out as three small settlements named Le Sueur, Middle Le Sueur and Le Sueur City, which were united in 1867 by the Minnesota Legislature.

The Jolly Green Giant

Le Sueur is known as the “Valley of the Jolly Green Giant” as it was the birthplace in 1903 of the canning company that harvested and canned corn and peas grown by local farmers.

To honor this heritage, Le Sueur hosts a “Giant Celebration” every August with a fabulous parade, as well as food, music, games and family activities for everyone in the surrounding communities to enjoy.
